

TIRE-SMOKING DOUBLE-CLUTCHING FOUR-BARREL

FASHION OVERDRIVE

Whichever lane you choose to travel, millennium-ending fashion is geared to suit your style. From the look of the fashion forecast, society at large has seen the implications of marching in lockstep to a single trend, philosophy or idea, rejecting unified fashion movements in favor of more individualistic expression.

The fashions for the Fall '99 season expand on the minimalism which pervaded the nineties; displaying more freedom, flamboyance and fun at the end of this fairly sedate decade, the fashion on our horizon takes advantage of its unique "last chance" status, becoming a dynamic time capsule.

Autumn '99 is a mélange of different eras and cultures, producing fusions of favorites as varied as the American population... the same type of fusion that's going on in art, music, and even cuisine.

Our prediction: The fashion faux pas becomes increasingly rare; the fashion police force will be downsized.

Our advice: Don't be afraid to change lanes.
